

Please do not permit our "Indiana Telephone Privacy" law here in Indiana to be weakened by allowing the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) to have their way. The "banks" all have business phones to be contacted at if we have the desire to call them at their offices. We, as consumers, do not phone them at home.